AFI 34-119, 25 July 1994, is supplemented as follows:

This supplement applies to anyone who uses, sells, or otherwise serves alcoholic beverages on property under the control of the USAF Academy. Violations of AFI 34-119, paragraph 1-1, may render the offender liable to prosecution. Violation of Chapters 1, 2, and 3 may render the offender subject to disciplinary action.

Only persons 21 years of age or over may purchase, possess (includes possession while traveling to and from authorized facilities in compliance with Colorado state law), and/or consume alcoholic beverages, of any kind, in accordance with attachment 1. Cadets of any age or class are not allowed to possess or consume alcohol on the USAF Academy with limited exceptions as set forth in 34 TRW instructions. Additionally, cadet candidates of any age are not allowed to possess or consume alcohol on the USAF Academy, with limited exceptions as set forth in HQ USAFA/PL instructions.

Alcoholic beverages may be sold during normal operating hours not to exceed the parameters in the attachment.

The 10th Air Base Wing Commander (10 ABW/CC) must approve, in advance, any extension of hours.

The activities, areas, and facilities in which alcoholic and malt beverages may be sold, possessed, or consumed are listed in attachment 1. Sale, possession, or consumption of alcoholic or malt beverages in areas not reflected in attachment 1 is prohibited except with permission from the appropriate major element commander (e.g., 34th Training Wing Commander (34 TRW/CC), Athletics (HQ USAFA/AH), Dean of the Faculty (HQ USAFA/DF), etc.) and final approval from 10 ABW/CC.
